

Managing Director's Welcome

Welcome to this month's Newsletter.

With a chill in the air, it's clear that our summer months are now behind us. We have seen a successful summer with many events taking place, especially the Ride of London, which was a huge success. The football season has got off to great start and I'm glad to hear all the positive feedback coming in from the Operational Department on our Monday morning meetings.

I have been working relentlessly in the background on some promising potential new venues, which will see our staff busy as ever at some potentially exciting new locations. Keep your eyes peeled.

Over the course of the last month I've been on the ground visiting our clients and more importantly our staff. I relished the opportunity to meet some of our newly recruited workforce, which were recruited during our summer recruitment drive. It was extremely refreshing to witness our historic staff taking the time to welcome and support our newly recruited members. Keep up the good work.

We have a busy period, between now and Christmas so if you haven't looked already, make sure you login to PARiM and book in. I look forward to seeing you all over the upcoming weeks.

SECURITY HACKS

Let's be honest, we've all been there and made a rookie mistake at least once in our security career. Don't worry...we've got you covered! Check out our top security hacks to help ace your shift!

Layer up

Stewarding in the summer, is such a breeze. Throw in rain, snow, sleet and freeeeeeezing degrees and you've winter on your hands.

Think you're warm enough with your jumper on? WRONG! Layer up until you can't layer no more...trust us, you won't regret it!

Confirmation Texts

Those lovely confirmation texts you get...yeah, they're not just for us but funnily enough for you too!

Those confo texts contain so much detail! Make sure you read them and make note of where you're working.

FOOD!

Okay, we're not suggesting you buy the whole of TESCO just for a shift. But, there is nothing worse than having to complete a shift whilst you're starving!

By making sure you eat not only gives you more energy, but it makes you less cranky meaning more smiles for all those spectators.

Be On Time

Nothing is worse than running late, so to avoid all that aggro just simply go to bed early.

Wear the right shoes

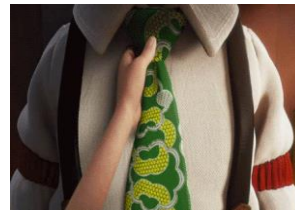

Just imagine this...you're about to complete an 8 hour shift, within the first hour your feet are killing! Why? Because you've made the rookie mistake of not wearing those comfortable walking boots..!

Can't find walking boots? Just remember, insoles are your bestfriend! Make sure you double up on those bad boys!

Clip on tie

Yes...we all know the ridiculous burden that comes along when wearing that clip on tie. But trust us not only do you look smart but it also prevents anyone from pulling your tie and injuring you. So if you value your neck. Don't forget the tie!! Just to illiterate...clip on ties save lives...
